BIBLE TRUTH

We're learning... Bible Truth 14:
God's People Delight in God's Glory

Jesus is God's Son. He left His home in heaven to come to earth to save God's people. He lived a perfect life and offered it up as the perfect payment for the sins of God's people, so they could be His forever. Jesus rose from the dead on the third day then went back to heaven to reign. He is preparing a place for God's people to come and live with Him. There is nothing better than living with God and enjoying Him forever. The Bible tells us that we can't even imagine how wonderful it will be. There are many hard things that God's people may have to endure here on earth, but they look forward to the day when they go home to heaven and suffer no more. There are also many good things that God's people enjoy here on earth, but they know that none of them can compare to the good things they will enjoy in heaven in God's presence. Every day, God's people try to please God with whatever happens in their lives, but they are always looking forward to that wonderful day when they will go home to be with Him forever.

CASE STORY

Acts 6-7

Our story is: The Case of the Slandered Servant.

As you listen to the story, see if you can figure out:

- 1. Who was the Slandered Servant and why were they spreading lies about him?
- 2. How did glorify God even though he was slandered?

This story takes place in New Testament times, not long after Jesus died on the cross and rose from the dead.

An old widow slowly made her way down the streets of Jerusalem to the place where the Christians gathered. With no husband or children to care for her needs, she had no one to take care of her. If she hadn't become a Christian, she could have gone to the Temple and received help from the Jews. But ever since she had become a believer in Jesus, she had lost their help. No. She would be out on the streets begging for bread or for money if it weren't for the generosity of the other believers. They gave money to provide food each day for this widow and many others.

The church appointed seven men--Stephen, Philip, Procorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicolas--as deacons to take care of the needs of these widows. Each day, with gentleness and kindness, these man bought food and served it to these widows. All seven of these men loved God and glorified Him with their lives, but Stephen stood out above them all.

Taking care of the needs of those widows was a huge job, but Stephen did a lot more than just that. Stephen loved to share the good news of Jesus. He wanted more and more people to praise God and give him glory because of Jesus. So Stephen went to the Jewish synagogues, as well as out into the streets, and shared the gospel with all who would listen.

God worked powerfully through Stephen. He helped him boldly tell about Jesus and He did amazing miracles through Stephen, too, as proof that Jesus really was the Savior. Many people listened, saw what God did through Stephen and trusted in Jesus as their Savior. Stephen was so pleased that God was being glorified through him. Nothing was more important to him than that!

But while many listened to Stephen and believed in Jesus, many others listened and did not believe! Many Jews were furious at what Stephen taught. "Jesus is not the Messiah sent to save us and we will prove it to you from the Bible!" they declared. But no matter why arguments they came up with, God gave Stephen wisdom to prove them wrong. Not even the smartest teacher could ever win against Stephen!

This only made those Jews even more furious. "Perhaps we can't argue as well as Stephen, but we maybe can get rid of him another way. Let's get some bad men to tell lies about him and get him in big trouble with the Jewish leaders," they plotted. "They might even have him killed."

Their plan worked! As lies about Stephen spread through Jerusalem, the Jews became angrier and angrier. "Something must be done about this man!" the Jewish leaders said. "Seize him and bring him to us!" they ordered. Before long, Stephen was dragged to the Temple courts and set in front of the Supreme Sanhedrin, the most important Jewish court in Israel. Here, Stephen's fate would be decided.

Stephen stood in the middle of the Council Chamber. The seventy-one Pharisees and chief priests of the Supreme Sanhedrin sat on one side of room and their students and other Jews sat on the other side. They called one witness after another to speak against Stephen.

"He spoke against the name of the LORD," one said.

"He said Jesus would destroy our Temple!" another said. "I heard him say that Jesus would do away with the customs Moses handed down to us," yet another said.

The men in the Council Chamber looked very concerned. These were very serious charges. If Stephen couldn't prove they were lies, he would face death by stoning. Stephen knew this, but he didn't panic. He delighted in God's glory. He felt certain that God had called him to testify to these important Jews about Jesus. He knew the more he trusted in Jesus even as he faced death, the more God would be glorified. There was nothing more important to Stephen than this.

Now all eyes turned towards Stephen, What would he say and do? But even before Stephen had spoken one word, the Lord was already glorifying Himself through Stephen. The Bible tells us that Stephen's face seemed to radiate God's glory, like the face of an angel.

The high priest came forward and said, "You've heard these witnesses. Are these things true?"

"My fellow Jews, listen to me!" Stephen said. "Long ago the LORD gave us this land, His laws and the Temple that we might love and serve Him. Through the prophets He urged us to turn away from our sins and to look forward to the Messiah who would save us. But our people sinned against the LORD and resisted His Holy Spirit. Now you are acting just like them! You have betrayed and murdered Jesus, the Messiah! Even now you're disobeying His laws and rejecting the good news of salvation through Jesus!"

Stephen's words only made the Jewish leaders more furious. But Stephen, full of the Holy Spirit, looked up to heaven and saw the glory of God and Jesus. "Look," he said, "I see Jesus in heaven, standing before God in the place of highest honor!"

This was more than the Jewish leaders could stand! Stephen was saying that Jesus was God. This was blasphemy! He must be silenced! He must be put to death!

"They covered their ears and started yelling loudly. They wanted to drown out Stephen's praise of Jesus. They grabbed Stephen and dragged him outside of Jerusalem. Then they did what they always did to people who dishonored God's name—they threw stones at him to kill him!

How did Stephen take this undeserved punishment? Did he yell back angry, hateful words at them, or plead with them to stop? No, he didn't. Stephen was a man who delighted in God's glory. He knew God was calling him to die for the honor of Jesus' name. He knew that the more courageously and willingly he endured this suffering for Jesus, the more God would be glorified.

Amidst that deadly shower of stones, Stephen prayed: "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit." Then he fell down to his knees and cried: "Lord, do not hold this sin against them." And with those words, he died. Nothing—not even life, itself—was more important to Stephen than the glory of God.

Our Bible Truth is: God's People Delight in God's Glory

Our Bible Verse is: Psalm 66:1-3,5,8,16

"Shout with joy to God, all the earth! Sing the glory of His name; make his praise glorious! Say to God, 'How awesome are Your deeds!' Come and see what God has done, how awesome His works in man's behalf! Praise our God, O peoples, let the sound of His praise be heard...Come and listen, all you who fear God; let me tell you what He has done for me."

What about God's people today? What is God calling them to do? Like Stephen, He is calling them to selflessly care for others. Like Stephen, He is calling them to tell new people about salvation through Jesus. And though many of God's people may never face dying for their faith like Stephen did, all will know some kind of sadness or pain from others who reject the good news of salvation through Jesus.

Whatever God calls His people to do, they can know that they are all opportunities to serve Him and others; to serve Him and others, but best of all, they are opportunities to glorify God by reflecting His good ways to the world.

Let's praise God for the perfectly glorious way He is and the perfectly glorious things He does. Let's ask Him to help us to turn away from our sins and trust in Jesus as our Savior. Let's ask Him to fill us with His Holy Spirit and make us people who daily delight to live our lives so as to bring glory to Him in all we do.

BIBLE TRUTH HYMN

To God Be the Glory
PFI NIV Songs 12, Tracks 44,45

Verse 1
 To God be the glory, great things He hath done;
 So loved He the world that He gave us His Son,
 Who yielded His life an atonement for sin,
 And opened the lifegate that all may go in.

Refrain:
 Praise the Lord, praise the Lord,
 Let the earth hear His voice!
 Praise the Lord, praise the Lord,
 Let the people rejoice!
 O come to the Father, thro' Jesus the Son,
 And give Him the glory,
 Great things He hath done.

Verse 3
 Great things He hath taught us,
 great things He hath done;
 And great our rejoicing thro' Jesus the Son,
 But purer, and higher, and greater will be
 Our wonder, our vict'ry, when Jesus we see.
Words: Fanny J. Crosby Music: William H. Doane
 We give glory to God for giving us His Son to be the payment for sins. Sinners could never pay for their sins. Only by Jesus giving up His life in the place of sinners could there ever be a way for them to come to the Father.

AN ACTS PRAYER FROM OUR STORY

A=Adoration, C=Confession, T=Thanksgiving, S=Supplication

A God, we praise You for being worthy of all glory and honor.

C God, we confess that many times we don't think about glorifying God with our lives as Stephen did. Many times we think only about making a big deal about ourselves so others will think about us.. Many times we choose to not do things that might glorify You, but would be hard or no fun to do. We deserve Your punishment! We need a Savior!

T God, we thank You for sustaining Your people through even the hardest kinds of sufferings so that they glorify You as You and they want to.

S God, work in our hearts! Help us turn away from our sins and trust in Jesus as our Savior. Fill us with Your Holy Spirit and make us people who daily delight to live our lives to bring You glory in all we do.

God's people delight in God's glory. He has been so good to them! He has given His Son to save them from their sins. He has taken care of every other need they have ever had. He has filled them with His Holy Spirit and they have fellowship with Him in their heart. They have never lacked any good thing and they never will their whole life. They want to praise the LORD all the time. They want others to join them in magnifying His name (praising Him) and in knowing Him, themselves. To be one of God's people is the best blessing anyone can ever have.
