Week after week, God's people gathered together on a special worship day to worship God and love one another. They listen to preaching from God's Word, the Bible. They sing and pray together. They think about how they can better love God and each other. They care for each other's needs. They comfort those who are sad or sick. They are happy with those who are happy. They want others to see how they love God and each other. They want them to want to come to hear about Jesus, too.
