Story-telling Tips

Ahead of time:

1. Read the Bible verses and story. Pray!
2. Choose story action cues and/or prepare storyboard figures, if using. (Included in Visual Aids book)
3. Practice telling story with the storyboard pictures, timing your presentation. Shorten, if necessary.

During your presentation:

1. Maintain as much eye contact as possible as you tell the story.
2. Put up storyboard figures/add story action cues as you tell the story. Allow the children to help you put them on the board, if desired.
3. Include the children in your story with a few questions about what they think will happen or words/concepts that might be new to them.

INTRODUCTION/ LISTENING ASSIGNMENTS

“Our story is called: The Case of the Sad Thing that Did Good. Here is your listening assignment...” Read from Detective Dan’s Listening Assignment signs, but questions are summarized below:

Detective Dan’s Lesson #1 Listening Assignment:

I need to know:

1. What was the sad thing that the parents found out about their baby?
2. What good did Jesus use this sad thing to do?

Detective Dan’s Lesson #2 Listening Assignment:Our Bible Verse is Romans 8:28:

I need to know:

Transgressions and iniquities are other words for sin.

1. What did many people say about the baby’s blind eyes?
2. What good purpose did God have for the baby’s blind eyes?

Detective Dan’s Lesson #3 Listening Assignment:I found six clues, but two of them are NOT in the story.

They are: a baby, the Temple, Jesus, a suitcase, a car, and a pool of water.

Hold each of them up for the children to see as you identify them.

I need to know:

1. Which four belong in the story and which two don’t?
2. Who did the blind baby grow up to worship? Why?

Read the assignment questions, THEN SAY,

“Ok, Deep Down Detectives! Put on your best listening ears and see if you can hear the answers to Detective Dan’s questions. When I finish telling the story, we will see if we can answer all the questions.”

Read the Bible Truth story, answer questions, present the gospel and lead in prayer.

Answers to questions; the gospel; and, ACTS prayer are included with the story text.

Story with lines separating paragraphs (text in bold, optional interaction cues in italics) Numbers correspond to storyboard pictures and placement upon the storyboard. Always feel free to use less pictures, if it's best for your kids. Simply black out the numbers next to pictures you do not plan to use. All pictures are found in the Visual Aids book. Put BG (background) pictures on storyboard ahead of time. SB pictures (listed below in story text) are added to board as you tell the story. These numbers are also found on the back of each picture.

Tip: Stack pictures in numerical before telling story for easy use. Use sticky-back velcro to attach pictures to storyboard felt. Use sticky-tac putty to stick a picture on top of another picture.

This story takes place in Jerusalem. Jerusalem was a beautiful city with thousands of people living in it. It had (SB1) big, tall, stone walls all around it and big, wide gates where important men would talk about important things. It had (SB2) bumpy, cobblestone on its streets and lots of houses, big and small, along its twisty-turny, narrow streets. It had (SB3) fountains of sparkling water to drink from and pools of water to wash in. It had (SB4) a big marketplace where farmers would sell their delicious fruits and vegetables, and shepherds would sell their baa-ing sheep and maa-ing goats. Where bakers would sell their warm, tasty bread; and merchants, their fine-feeling fabrics and glittering necklaces from other parts of the world.

But Jerusalem was most famous for (SB5) a big, beautiful building made of glittering, white stones. It was the LORD's special worship place. Do you know what this building was called?

Do you know?

It was called the Temple. (SB6) People would come from far and wide to worship the LORD at the Temple with their prayers and their songs and their worship gifts. They would gather in the courts around the Temple and listen to teachers tell them about the LORD and His good laws.

Not too far from the Temple lived (SB7) a man and his wife. How happy this man and his wife were! Why do you think they were so happy?

Can you guess?

They were so happy because the wife had just had a baby! It was a baby boy! Oh, what good news this was!

"Yay! Yay!" the man and his wife thought. "We have a boy! We will love him and care for him. What a joy that will be! He will be a great help to our family, too! He will grow up strong and will help us make money to take care of our family, as sons always do." What a lot this man and his wife had to celebrate!

But soon the man and his wife weren't happy any more. (SB8) They were sad! There was something wrong with their baby boy's eyes. He couldn't see! Perhaps his eyes would get better, they must have hoped. But soon it was clear: their little boy's eyes would NOT get better. He would always be blind.

How sad this man and woman were for their little boy! He would never see their faces. He would never see Jerusalem's big, tall walls or gates. He would never see its houses along the narrow, cobblestone streets. He would never see its fountains or pools of sparkling water. He would never see its markets filled with good food and supplies. He would never see the beautiful Temple where people came to worship the LORD.

And to make things worse, this little boy would never be able to help his father make money to take care of the family. All he would ever be able to do is sit on the side of the street and ask people for money. Yes, this boy's blindness was very sad, indeed!

P.3*Story with lines separating paragraphs (text in bold, optional interaction cues in italics)*

But there was something else that made the man and his wife sad. It was what other people said about their family. Some people saw the little, blind baby and kindly said, “(SB9) It is sad, sad, sad, that this little baby can’t see. How hard that must be for him and his mother and father!” And, of course, the man and his wife had to agree. This blindness was sad, sad, sad! What good could come out of this blindness! It brought sadness! Only sadness!

But much worse was what the important men who taught about God and His laws, were saying: “(SB10) It isn’t sad, sad, sad that this little baby can’t see. No! It’s bad, bad, bad,” they exclaimed. “This baby -- or his mother or father-- must have done something terribly bad. God is punishing them and that’s why this baby was born blind,” they said.

Was this true? What terrible thing had they done? Oh, how hard it was for the man and his wife to hear people say this! Oh, what badness came from this blindness! It brought sadness! Only sadness!

So I guess you can see why the man and his wife, who had been so very happy, weren’t very happy at all anymore. Their hearts were full of sadness for their son and about all the terrible, wrong things the teachers were saying about their family.

Year after year went by. The (SB11) little boy grew up and up and up, until at last he was a full grown man. He still was blind, but over the years, he had learned his way around the Jerusalem.

What do you think he could feel and hear and taste?

(SB12) He knew the feel of Jerusalem’s big, tall walls and its huge gates. He knew the feel of the cobblestones under his feet, the touch of the stone sides of the houses on his hands, and the fresh coolness of the shade in the narrow streets. He could splash the water on his face and sip it in his cup. He could taste the delicious fruit and hear the animals “baa-ing.” He could smell the freshly-baked bread and feel the silky fabric of the merchants. And (SB13) as he sat beside the road to the big, beautiful Temple, he could feel the swish of people’s clothes and the slap of their sandals as they went by...and the clink of their coins that they tossed in his begging cup, on their way to worship the LORD.

But sometimes, he heard (SB14) people say those terrible, wrong words again: “There’s that man who has been blind from birth. What terribly bad thing his family must have done for God to punish him like this!” they would exclaim.

This blindness was sad, sad, sad! What good could come out of this blindness! It brought sadness! Only sadness!

But then one Sabbath day, everything changed. Those people who said those things were wrong! That baby wasn’t born blind because he or his parents had done something terribly wrong. No! God had always had a beautiful, big plan to use their sadness for good—great good! And this was to be the day that God’s good plan would be made know to the blind man, his parents and oh, so many other people in Jerusalem. And God would use Jesus to do!

P.4*Story with lines separating paragraphs (text in bold, optional interaction cues in italics)*

(SB15) Jesus and his close friends, the disciples, had come to Jerusalem. They went to the Temple where Jesus began to teach about God. (SB16) Crowds of people gathered, eager to hear everything He had to say. (SB17) Even the other teachers who taught at the Temple stopped talking and went to listen to Jesus, too.

(SB18) “I am God’s Son,” Jesus told them all. “Whoever believes and obeys Me will get to live forever with God,” Jesus proclaimed.

The other teachers were furious! “(SB19) We don’t believe you! You aren’t really God’s Son,” they said to Jesus. “You are lying. You deserve to die for saying you are God’s Son!” and they picked up stones to throw at Jesus. They were going to kill Jesus!

(SB20) Jesus and His friends ran and hid. Would the teachers find Jesus and kill Him with their stones?

What do you think?

No, they would not.

When all was safe, Jesus and His friends came out of hiding, they (SB21, SB22) left the Temple grounds and who did they see?

Can you guess?

It was the man born blind.

No sooner had Jesus’ friends seen the blind man, then that terrible question came out of their mouths: “Jesus, did this man or his parents do the terrible bad thing that made his eyes blind?” they asked.

“(SB23) You have it all wrong!” Jesus told them. “This man isn’t blind because someone did something terribly bad. (SB24) It was God’s plan to use his poor man’s sadness for good—great good. I’m going to heal his eyes by God’s power. God will use this to help many believe that I really am God’s Son,” Jesus declared.

Jesus went to the blind man and knelt down next to him. He spit on the ground and mixed the spit with the dirt and made it into mud. What would Jesus do with that mud?

What do you think Jesus would do with it?

(SB25) Jesus smeared mud on the man’s eyes and told him, “Go wash in the Pool of Siloam.”

Why did Jesus do this? Was He making fun of this poor man? Did He want to make his sad life, even sadder?

What do you think?

The man would soon find out... and so will we! Down the narrow, cobblestone streets the blind man made his way to (Move SB25) the Pool of Siloam. Even though he could not see, he knew how to get there. He had felt his way there many times.

At the pool, he dipped his hands into the cool water. He (SB26) brought them up to his face and washed off the mud. He opened his eyes and what do you think happened?

What do you think?

Yay! yay! yay! (SB27) That man born blind could see for the first time in his whole life! Jesus had healed him!

Off the man went home to share the happy news with his father and mother. What did he see as he went home? He saw the pool of sparkling water! He saw the big, tall walls and the huge gates. He saw the narrow, cobblestone streets and all the houses. He saw market and the Temple. He saw his very own little house. (SB28) And then, he saw his very own parents for the first time!

“Jesus healed me! Now I can see!” the man exclaimed to his parents. Oh, how happy they must have been! After all these years, their son could see! They spread the good news to all who would listen.

(SB29) And those who heard the news rushed to the house to see for themselves! Sure, enough, it was true! The man born blind could see! They were amazed at what Jesus had done. “No one has ever healed a man born with blind eyes before. Jesus must be who He says He is,” they exclaimed. What good Jesus had begun to do through this man’s blind eyes! Jesus had used them to help these people believe in Him!

Before long, the news of what Jesus had done for the blind man also reached the ears of his enemies-- the teachers of God’s law. (SB30) They came to the blind man’s house and inspected him. They couldn’t doubt the amazing thing that Jesus did, but still they refused to believe in Jesus. “Jesus is a bad man! He is not God’s Son,” they said.

And what about the blind man who had been healed? What did he think?

Do you think he believed in Jesus?

Yes, he did! (SB31) He fell down before Jesus and worshipped Him. “Lord, I believe,” he exclaimed.

What a day for that blind man and for his parents! Jesus had used this man’s sadnesses for good--for great good, just as God had always planned. He healed his blind eyes. And best of all, He gave that man-- and many others-- faith to trust in Him as God’s Son, their Savior. Now that is good--great, good!

Cracking the Case: (story wrap-up for Listening Assignments)

It's time to see how we did with our Listening Assignment.

Detective Dan's Lesson 1 Listening Assignment:

1. What was the sad thing that the parents found out about their baby? He was blind.

2. What good did Jesus use this sad thing to do? To show God's great power and to help many people trust in Him as God's Son, the Savior, including the blind man, himself.

For You and Me:

Isn't it wonderful to know that God uses all His people's sadnesses for good! God still uses His people's sadnesses for good, even today. And we can know that He will use all of our sadnesses for the good, too, if we turn away from our sins and trust in Jesus as our Savior. It is His promise to all who do.

Detective Dan's Lesson 2 Listening Assignment:
Our Bible Verse is Romans 8:28, ESV:

"And we know that for those who love God all things work together for good, for those who are called according to his purpose."

1. What did many people say about the baby's blind eyes? Many people thought God was punishing the baby or his parents for something bad they had done.

2. What good purpose did God have for the baby's blind eyes? To show God's great power and to help many people trust in Him as God's Son, the Savior, including the blind man, himself.

For You and Me:

Those people were wrong, weren't they? God always planned to use that baby's blindness for good. He wasn't punishing them! Isn't it wonderful to know that God uses all His people's sadnesses for good! God still uses His people's sadnesses for good, even today. And we can know that He will use all of our sadnesses for the good, too, if we turn away from our sins and trust in Jesus as our Savior. It is His promise to all who do.

Detective Dan's Lesson 3 Listening Assignment:

Our six clues were: a baby, the Temple, Jesus, a suitcase, a car, and a pool of water.

1. Which four belong in our story?

The baby, the Temple, Jesus and the pool of water belong. The suitcase and the car do not.

2. Who did the blind baby grow up to worship? Why?

Jesus. God gave him faith to believe in Jesus when Jesus healed his blind eyes.

For You and Me:

How kind it was of Jesus to heal the blind man! How even kinder it was of Jesus to give the blind man faith to believe that He was God's Son, the Savior. How many good things God used the blind man's sadness to do! God will use our sadnesses for good, too, when we turn away from our sins and trust in Jesus as our Savior. It is His promise to all who do.

The Gospel (story wrap-up if NOT using Listening Assignments)Our Bible Truth is:

What Is God's Love for His People Like?
It's More than They Could Ever Deserve!
God Uses Their Sadnesses for Good!

God takes care of His people in every way! And how kind He is to keep on caring for their needs, even when they think He won't—like He took care of Naomi. He is so good to His people! But the greatest way that God has cared for His people is by saving them.

You see, we all choose to disobey God. We all deserve God's punishment for our sins and He would have been perfectly fair to give us all His punishment for breaking His laws and leave it at that. But God is so rich in mercy that He sent His Son Jesus to die on the cross and take the punishment for all who turn away from their sins and trust Jesus as their Savior. For all who do, God will forgive their sins and they will enjoy special closeness with God now as His special people. And one day, they will get to live with Him forever. How amazing is God's love for His people! We can be God's people, too! When we turn away from our sins and trust in Jesus as our Savior, He will save us, too! It is His promise to us!

Close in prayer.

Closing ACTS Prayer

- A We praise you, God for being so good and so powerful! You even use all of Your people's sadnesses for their good. You show how good and great You are!
- C God, You promise to use all things for the good in the lives of Your people, but many times we don't trust that You will. We act like Your plans aren't good or that You aren't really in control. Please forgive us! We need a Savior!
- T Thank You for Your amazing promises to work good even in all of our sadnesses, when we trust in You as our Savior. Thank You that You can work good things in even the biggest sadnesses and the scariest things that happen to us. Thank You for the good You will do that we do not yet see.
- S God, work deep inside our hearts. Help us to turn away from our sins and trust in Jesus as our Savior. Help us to love You and trust You. Do many good things even through our sadnesses...good things that show others how good and great You are.

In Jesus' name we pray, Amen.
