

O Worship the King

Verse 3

Thy bountiful care what tongue can recite?
It breathes in the air,
It shines in the light,
It streams from the hills,
It descends to the plain,
And sweetly distills in the dew and the rain.

about this hymn:

Words: Robert Grant Music: Attr. Johan Michael Haydn

Long ago, a man named Robert Grant was thinking about this Bible truth, too. He wrote words a hymn called "O Worship the King." We're going to learn a verse from it.

All of God's creation tells us about Him. We can look at everything from the air to the light, to the hills and plains, to the dew and rain, and see that God cares for us bountifully--that is, His care overflows for us. We need never lack anything. What a wonderful thing that is for God's creations to show us about Him!

O Worship the King, v.3

PFI NIV Songs 1, Track 9

Bountiful

Start with flat right hand on top of left S hand. Move right hand over and down thumb side of left S hand.

Tongue

Point both "L" hands towards each other, then move each hand to the side twisting them from the wrist as they move outward.

Breathes

Both open flat hands are placed on chest and moved forward and back off of chest a few times. (Simulating rise and fall of chest in breathing.)

Light, Shines

"Hold both hands at chest level, fingertips together. Open hands into "5" hands as they move up and out to the side, palms facing out.

Hills

Both "5" hands, palms facing forward and fingertips up, trace a wavy line like a line of mountain (or hill) tops.

Descends

Right hand, index finger extended, moves downward a few inches.

Plains

Thumb and fingers of both hands, palms facing up, are moved back and forth over each other, as if feeling imaginary soil in each hand.

Distills

Hold both "And" hands together in front of body, then open hands, spreading fingers apart, as both hands move forward and to each side.

Rain

Move both hands down as you wiggle the fingers.

The Heavens Declare

The heavens declare the glory of God,
The sky proclaims,
The works of His hands
Day after day,
They pour out speech,
Night after night,
they display knowledge,
There is no language,
Where their voice is not heard.
Their voice goes out into all the earth.
The heavens declare the glory of God,
The sky proclaims the works of His hands
Psalm Nineteen: one through four.

about this Bible verse:

Creations tell us something about their creator. God created the heavens. They display some of His glory: how good and great He is. Everyone can look up in the heavens and see a picture of God's glory in what they see. That is how they "speak" about God.
