

O For a Thousand Tongues to Sing

Verse 1

O, for a thousand tongues to sing,
My great Redeemer's praise,
The glories of my God and King,
The triumphs of His grace!

about this hymn:

Words: Charles Wesley Music: Carl G. Glaser

Long ago, a man named Charles Wesley was thinking about this Bible truth, too. He wrote the words to this hymn. He called it "O For a Thousand Tongues to Sing." We're going to learn a verse from it.

This hymn reminds us that Jesus is the great Redeemer who came to earth to show us what God is like and to save His people from their sins. When we see what God has done through Jesus, we want to sing of His glorious love and mercy and grace shown to undeserving sinners.

Point both "L" hands towards each other, then move each hand to the side twisting them from the wrist as they move outward.

Sing

Wave the right flat hand back and forth over left flat hand.

Middle finger of right hand touches upturned left flat hand, then is wiggled back and forth as it is raised up.

King

Right "K" hand, palm facing left touches left shoulder, then is brought down to touch right hip.

Triumph

Both upright hands pretend to grasp imaginary flags and wave them in small circles at head height.

Grace

Begin with fingertips of right hand touching, palm facing forward. Twist wrist around, bringing hand down and palm facing body, while at the same time opening up the fingers and flattening the hand.

The Son Is the Radiance

The Son is the radiance,
the radiance of God's glory,
The Son is the radiance,
the radiance of God's glory.

And the exact representation of His being,
And the exact representation of His being.

The Son is the radiance,
the radiance of God's glory,
The Son is the radiance,
the radiance of God's glory.

Hebrews Chapter One, verse three.

We can see the radiance of sun in the sky. It makes everything bright. Even though the sun is far, far away, we know what it's like because of the light it shines all around us. The Bible tells us that Jesus left His home in heaven and became a man. He was a man, but He was still God's Son, too. He lived a perfect life. He taught about God, His Father, and did amazing things. Jesus is the radiance of God's glory. He shows us exactly what God is like because He is God. There is nothing or no one else who can show us more about God than Jesus.
