

Come, Ye Sinners, Poor and Needy

Verse 1

Come ye sinners, poor and needy,
Weak and wounded, sick and sore;
Jesus ready stands to save you,
Full of pity, love, and pow'r.

Refrain:

I will arise and go to Jesus,
He will embrace me in His arms.
In the arms of my dear Savior,
O there are ten thousand charms.

about this hymn:

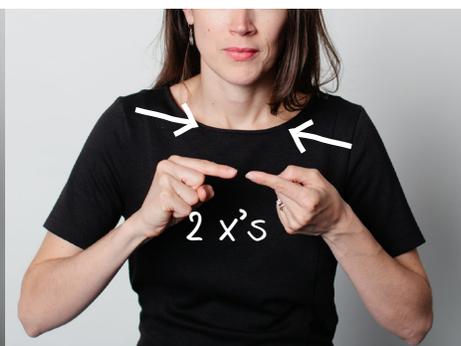

Words: Joseph Hart Music: Walker's Southern Harmony

Long ago, a man named Joseph Hart was thinking about this Bible truth, too. He wrote words to a hymn called "Come, Ye Sinners, Poor and Needy" We're going to learn a verse from it.

Adam and Eve--and all people after them-- suffer the consequences of their sinful rebellion. Everyone is poor and in need of a Savior. Everyone is weak and weary, sick and sore from sin. God, in His great mercy, promised Adam and Eve that one day He would send a Savior to crush Satan. Jesus paid for the sins of all who would ever turn and trust in Him. He welcomes them tenderly to come to Him and know the ten thousand charms of His love. God's people love to share the good news of a Savior for sinners that they, too, might turn from their sins and receive eternal life from God and with God!

Come, Ye Sinners, Poor and Needy, v.1

PFI ESV Songs 12, Track 37

Sinner

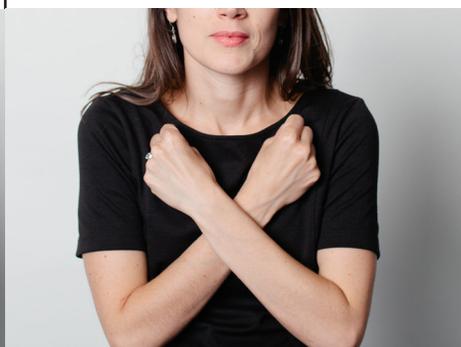

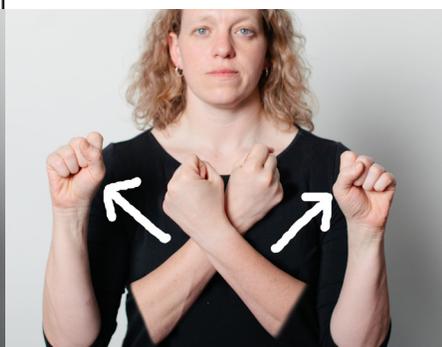

Both "X" hands, held near sides with palms facing up, move upward and outward in circles simultaneously.

Poor

Right curved hand is placed under left elbow. Pull the fingers down into an "and" hand a few times.

Wounded, Sore

Index fingers are thrust towards each other several times until almost touching.

Jesus

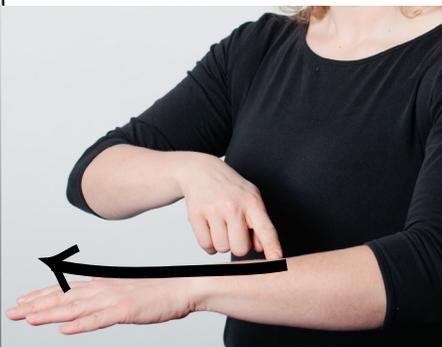

Middle, bent finger of right "5" hand touches middle of left open palm, palms facing each other. Then middle, bent finger of left "5" hand touches middle of right open palm, palms facing each other.

Save, Savior

"S" hands are crossed in front of body, palms facing in. Move both hands out to the side while pivoting the palms to face outward.

Love

Fists are crossed on chest, palms facing body.

Embrace

Hands clasp opposite arms in natural hug position.

Arms

Right index finger moves down length of left forearm.

Charms

Both flat hands are moved in a forward circular motion with palms brushing chest on the inward portion of the circle.

God's One, Big Plan

Verse 1

Forever God has had one, big plan,
To love a people from every land,
To love them all through Jesus Christ,
Who shed His blood to give eternal life.

Refrain

Oh, who is like the Lord our God,
Who has shown such power, such love.
No one, no one's like our God,
No one's shown such power, such love,
So for His glory, for our joy,
Let's know, let's grow, let's go,
Let's know, let's grow, let's go!

Verse 2

There's work for us in God's one, big plan,
To reach His people in every land,
Know God and His Word,
Grow like Jesus, Give, Pray.
Go to those lands,
Share the gospel today. (refrain)

about this song:

God has woven work for His people into His One, Big Plan of salvation. He has given them of telling others the good news of Jesus. He has chosen to work through their words and bringing salvation to people from every land. God's people both prepare to go and help others to go tell the good news of Jesus. They seek to know Him and study His Word. They want to live more and more like Jesus. They give money and pray for those who move to other lands to tell people about Jesus. Some, go to those other lands, themselves. In all these ways, God's people help tell others the good news of Jesus.

How Beautiful

Refrain

How beautiful! How beautiful!
How beautiful are the feet.
How beautiful! How beautiful!

Are the feet of those who preach the good news.
Ev'ryone who calls on the name of the Lord,
Will be saved.
Ev'ryone who calls on the name of the Lord,
Will be saved.

Yes, but I have some questions....

How then will they call on Him they've not believed in?
How are they to believe in Him they never heard?
How are they to hear without someone preaching?
How are they to preach unless they are sent?

Well, it all goes back to those feet! Refrain

Romans Ten, thirteen through fifteen.

about this Bible verse:

Words: adapted from Romans 10:13-15 ESV Music: Constance Dever ©2011

These verses remind us that God is the one who gives us everything we are and have. He wants us to be good stewards of them. He wants us to use these gifts to help and encourage others; and, to bring praise to His name. He gives us the strength to do this, through His Holy Spirit, when we turn from our sins and trust in Jesus as our Savior. God has chosen for others to hear the good news of salvation by sending His people to tell others about Him. They must go, if others are to hear and believe. That is how God has planned to save sinners. What a privilege this is to go and tell others! That is what makes their feet beautiful. Not that they have pretty feet, but that by using their feet to go tell others about Jesus, those others can know God and be saved from their sins.

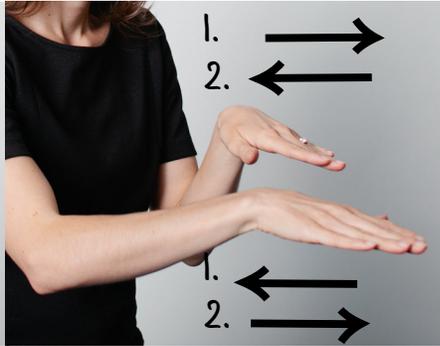

How Beautiful: Romans 10:13-15 ESV

Be My Witnesses

Be my witnesses,
You will be my witnesses,
In Jerusalem, Judea and Samaria,
And to the ends,
The ends of the earth.

Be my witnesses,
You will be my witnesses,
In Jerusalem, Judea and Samaria,
And to the ends,
The ends of the earth.
Acts One, eight.

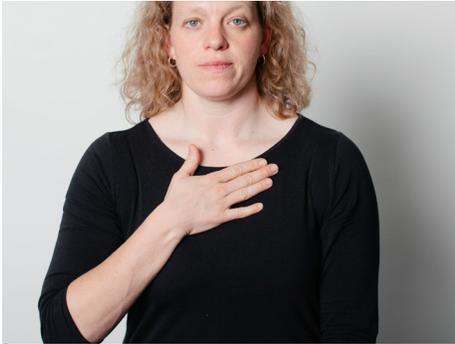

about this Bible verse:

Words: adapted from Acts 1:8 ESV Music: Constance Dever ©2011

Jesus' followers started out in Jerusalem--the city where Jesus died and rose from the dead. Jesus told them that they were not to stay there, but spread out to nearby areas (Judea and Samaria) and keep on going. The good news of salvation through faith in Him was a message for the whole world. They were to be His witnesses. That is, they were to tell others what they had learned about Jesus and seen God do through Him. They were to tell others how they could be saved. Even today, God's people keep obeying Jesus' command to take the gospel to the ends of the earth. God's plan to call and love a people from every land on earth will be fulfilled.
