

Immortal, Invisible

Verse 1

Immortal, invisible, God only wise,
In light inaccessible,
Hid from our eyes,
Most blessed, most glorious,
The Ancient of Days,
Almighty, victorious,
Thy great name we praise.

about this hymn:

Words: Walter Chalmers Smith Music Welsh Hymn Tune

Long ago, a man named Walter Chalmers Smith was thinking about this Bible truth, too. He wrote the words to a hymn called "Immortal, Invisible." We're going to learn a verse from it.

The LORD is the Ancient of Days—He has always lived. He has always known what has happened, everywhere in the whole universe and beyond.. He is Immortal—He will never die, but always live to know everything. He is only wise—He always knows what is best and always does what is best. Because He is almighty and victorious, everything in the past, present and future always will be the working out of His perfect will.

Immortal. Invisible, v.1

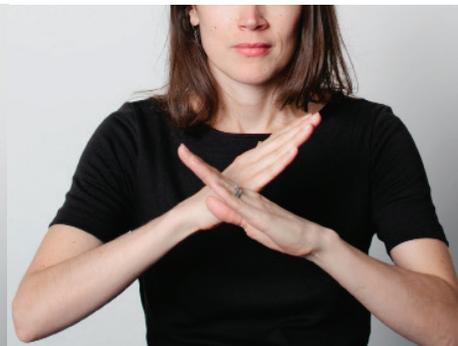

PFI NIV Songs 4, Track 16

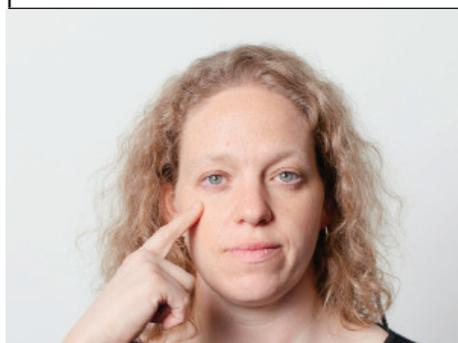

Immortal
Downturned right "Y" hand moves up and away from body.

God
Right open hand, palm facing left, is held up above head level then brought down and back in a slight arc, ending with a "B" hand at the upper chest level.

Inaccessible
Flat hands, palms down, are crossed in front of body.

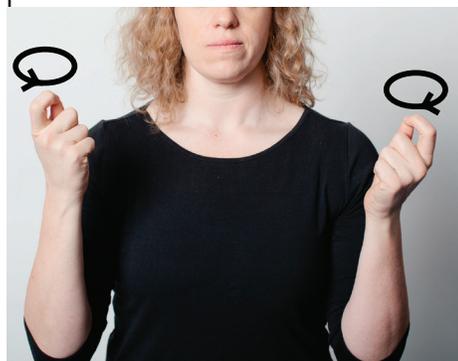

Eyes
Right index finger points to right eye.

Blessed
Place thumbs of both "A" hands at lips. Change hands into flat hands, palms down, as you extend them down and forward.

Victorious
Both upright hands pretend to grasp imaginary flags and wave them in small circles at head height.

Name
Index and middle finger of right "N" hand are brought down to rest on index and middle finger of left "N" hand. Both sets of fingers are pointing outward diagonally.

Praise
Clap the right hand on top of the left hand several times.

Praise Be to the Name of God

Praise be to the name of God forever and ever,
Wisdom and power are His forever and ever.
He gives wisdom to the wise,
and knowledge to the discerning.
He reveals deep and hidden things;
He knows what lies in darkness, and light dwells with Him.
Praise be to the name of God forever and ever,
Wisdom and power are His forever and ever.
Daniel Chapter Two, verses twenty through twenty-two.
