

Come, Ye Sinners, Poor and Needy

Verse 3

Come ye weary, heavy-laden,
Lost and ruined by the Fall;
If you tarry till you're better,
You will never come at all.

Refrain:

I will arise and go to Jesus,
He will embrace me in His arms.
In the arms of my dear Savior,
O there are ten thousand charms.

about this hymn:

Words: Joseph Hart Music: Walker's Southern Harmony

Long ago, a man named Joseph Hart was thinking about this Bible truth, too. He wrote the words to a hymn called "Come, Ye Sinners, Poor and Needy" We're going to learn a verse from it.

From Adam and Eve on down to us, we are all are weary and heavy-laden with sin. Try as hard as we might, we can never get rid of our sin on our own. And, we can never make ourselves acceptable to God on our own. But God, in His great mercy, offers all who are ruined by the Fall to find forgiveness of sins and eternal life through Jesus. We don't have to wait until we are less sinful to come to Jesus. He will take us as we are. And there, we came find not only forgiveness for our sins and rest for our souls, weary with sin. We can find wonderful fellowship with God. And that is better than even ten thousand things that charm us (that we think are delightful.)

Come

Place fingertips of right and hand at near chin moving toward the cheek with a slightly curved hand.

Heavy-laden

Place fingertips of both hands on right shoulder, bearing down.

Ruined

The Fall

Right "S" hand is held off to the right side at head height, palm facing the body. Pivot hand around sharply until palm faces forward.

Tarry

Both curved open hands are held palms facing up in front of body, right hand behind left hand. Wiggle all fingers..

Jesus

Middle, bent finger of right "5" hand touches middle of left open palm, palms facing each other. Then middle, bent finger of left "5" hand touches middle of right open palm, palms facing each other.

Arms

Right index finger moves down length of left forearm.

Savior

"S" hands are crossed in front of body, palms facing in. Move both hands out to the side while pivoting the palms to face outward.

Charms

Both flat hands are moved in a forward circular motion with palms brushing chest on the inward portion of the circle.

For If by the Trespass

For if, by the trespass of the one man,
death reigned through one man,
For if, by the trespass of the one man,
death reigned through one man,
Then how much more will those who receive
God's abundant grace and righteousness
Reign in life, Reign in life,
Through one man, Jesus Christ.
Romans Five, seventeen.

about this Bible verse:

Words adapted from Romans 5:17 NIV 1984 Constance Dever © 2011

Adam and Eve passed on their sinful hearts to their children--all of us! That means that we all are born sinners. How terrible! But God promised to show mercy to all who look in faith to the Savior who would crush Satan's power. Yes! All who turn from their sins and trust in Jesus are saved from the punishment they deserve from God for their sins. Sin came through one man, Adam. But Jesus, the Son of God and the son of man, gives His grace and perfect righteousness--everything they need to be saved!

For If by the Trespass: Romans 5:17

PFI NIV Songs 6, Track 12

More
Bring fingers of both "and" hands together.

Grace
Begin with fingertips of right hand touching, palm facing forward. Twist wrist around, bringing hand down and palm facing body, while at the same time opening up the fingers and flattening the hand.

The LORD Looks Down

The LORD looks down from heaven,
On the sons of men,
To see if there are any who understand,
Any who seek God.
But all have turned aside;
They have together become corrupt.
There is none who does good,
No, not even one.
Psalm Fourteen, two and three.

about this Bible verse:

Words adapted from Psalm 14:2-3, NIV 1984 Constance Dever © 2011

The Lord is everywhere, all the time. He knows all things and see all things. He sees everything we see and so much more. He can even see into our hearts and know everything we think and feel, but never say. All of us (all the sons of men--which means all people, both men and women), He sees and knows. And what does the LORD see and know about us as He looks? That there is no one who is without sin. There is no one who seeks after Him, on their own. We are all fools, with corrupt (sinful) hearts. There is no one who does good. That is, there is no one who obeys God perfectly, out of a pure heart.

There would be no hope for us, if it were not for Jesus! He came and lived a perfect life. He offered it up as the perfect sacrifice for the sins all those who would ever turn away from their sins and trust in Him as their Savior. He was the only One to do good and to seek God. He offers to give us His perfect record before God in order to save us from our sins and to make us God's people, seen as without sin in His sight. Praise God for sending us Jesus to save us!

The LORD Looks Down: Psalm 14:2-3

PFI NIV Songs 6, Track 13

Lord
Thumb of right "L" hand, palm facing left, touches left shoulder, then is brought down to touch right hip.

Looks, See
Index and middle finger of right "V" hand, palm facing in, are placed near eyes then moved forward.

Sons of Men
"P" hands, held side by side, make alternating forward circles.

Wise
Bent finger of right "X" hand is moved up and down several times. Make movement from the wrist.

God
Right open hand, palm facing left, is held up above head level then brought down and back in a slight arc, ending with a "B" hand at the upper chest level.

Turned Away/Aside
Index fingers are held close together, pointing upward. Right index finger is then moved away to the right as if straying away.

Corrupt
Right hand, palm facing down, is placed under chin, fingers pointing left. Wiggle fingers a few times.

Good
Fingers of right flat hand are placed at lips, then brought forward. Some end this sign by resting the right hand in the upturned palm of the left flat hand.

One (Number)
Hold up right index, palm facing forward.
