Big Question 9: What Did Jesus Come to Do?

Answer: Hes Not Like Anyone Else... He Went Up to Rule in Heaven!

Bible Truth 6 Meaning

After Jesus rose from the dead, He appeared to His followers many times. He showed them from the Bible why He had to suffer and die on the cross. He showed them how He had completed all of God's plans to save God's people. Jesus also told them God's plans for them. They were to go to into the whole world, urging everyone to turn away from their sins and trust in Him as their Savior. God would use them to save His people from every part of the world. After Jesus finished teaching His followers all these things, He went home to heaven. At last, once more, Jesus shone with bright shininess of God's glory. At last, once more, He delighted in all of the Perfect Wonderfulness of God—that closest, most wonderful love that He had fully enjoyed with God, the Father and God, the Holy Spirit before He had gone to earth to be our Savior. Jesus' work on earth was done, but not His work in heaven. Jesus now reigns as king over the whole universe --the King of kings and Lord of lords. He prays and cares for God's people as God's plan for them keeps being worked out here on earth. Jesus is there ruling and caring for God's people even now! And one day, He will come back to earth. He will put an end to sin and death forever. And in the new heaven and earth God will make, He will live face to face with God's people forever. That will be best of all! We can be God's people when we turn away from our sins and trust in Jesus as our Savior.

How do I know this is true? The Bible tells me so!

"Jesus Christ, who has gone into heaven and is at the right hand of God, with angels, authorities, and powers having been subjected to him." --- 1 Peter 3:21-22, ESV

Answer: Hes Not Like Anyone Else... He Went Up to Rule in Heaven!

How do I know this is true? The Bible tells me so!

“Jesus Christ, who has gone into heaven and is at the right hand of God, with angels, authorities, and powers having been subjected to him.” --- 1 Peter 3:21-22 , ESV

Meaning:

The Bible tells us that after Jesus rose from the dead, He taught His disciples many things from the Bible. But at last, when Jesus finished teaching them, He went up to heaven and began His rule as king, just as God promised He would in the Bible.

That’s what being at the right hand of God means. That’s a Bible way of saying that Jesus is ruling as the promised, great King who would beat sin and death and save God’s people--all who turn away from their sins and trust in Him as their Savior. (That can even be you and me!).

And that what Jesus is still doing even now. He is ruling over everything—not just all people, but all of the angels and other heavenly powers. He is King of Kings and Lord of Lords!

3. Where did Jesus go after He finished teaching His disciples? He went up to heaven.
4. What is Jesus doing in heaven now? He is ruling over everything.
5. Who even rules over the angels and other heavenly powers? Jesus does.

Let’s Pray!

- A Jesus, we praise You for being our Savior. You came to bring us to God. You died and rose again. You went up to heaven. We praise You for being the King ruling in heaven now.
- C Jesus, we are all sinners who have chosen to disobey God and His good laws. We deserve His punishment. We need to turn to You for forgiveness. We need You to be our Savior!
- T Thank You, Jesus, for dying on the cross to save all who trust in You as their Savior. Thank You for rising from the dead in victory! You show us that You really have beaten sin and death for all who turn away from their sins and trust in You as their Savior.
- S Jesus, work in our hearts. Help us to turn away from our sins. Help us to trust in You as our Savior. Help us to love You more and live for You more. Jesus, come back soon! We long for the day when You will bring sin and death to an end forever. Help us to be ready for that day!

The Case of the Fluffy Farewell Matthew 27-28; Mark 15-16; Luke 23-24; John 19-20; Acts 1

Story with lines separating paragraphs (text in bold, optional interaction cues in italics)

What a strange, three days it had been for the people of Jerusalem! On FRIDAY, they had watched Jesus suffer and die on a cross. He was the teacher who had taught them about God and done such amazing things. Many hoped He was the Messiah, God had promised to send to save God's people and to be their King. But those hopes left as they watched Jesus' dead body be taken away to be buried. His body was laid in the cave grave and the stone rolled in place. Jesus was gone.

Who would have imagined Jesus would die like this? Crosses were for men who had done terrible things, like the robbers who had died that day next to Jesus. Jesus had done nothing wrong. How strange! How very strange, that Jesus should die this way!

But if Friday was strange, then what happened to Jesus on the Sunday even stranger!

Do you know what happened?

People--lots of people-- were saying that Jesus had risen to life again!

The soldiers who guarded that cave grave saw what happened early that Sunday morning with their own eyes. So did the women with spices who came to care for Jesus' body. "How will we move the big stone in front of the cave?" they had wondered. Just then, there was a great earthquake, and an angel in gleaming, white clothes came down from heaven. He pushed the big stone out of the way for the women and said, "Jesus is not here! He has risen from the dead! Come look in the cave for yourselves, then go to His disciples and tell them He is risen and is coming to meet with them." When the guards saw this, they fell down to the ground and shook with fright.

After the angel and the women had left, the soldiers ran to tell Jesus' enemies what they had seen and heard. "Shh! Don't tell anyone this story!" Jesus' enemies replied. "Here's lots of money to keep quiet. Tell everyone that Jesus' disciples stole His body," they ordered the soldiers. "No one must know the truth!"

But this news couldn't be kept quiet. Jesus WAS alive and He was meeting with His followers. "It's Me! I'm alive," Jesus told the women who came to the cave grave that Sunday morning as they ran to tell the disciples. "It's Me! I'm alive," Jesus showed two others as He walked with them Sunday afternoon to the town of Emmaus, then served them bread at dinner, like He used to. "It's Me! I'm alive!" Jesus said to ten of His disciples, as He appeared to them at their house Jerusalem, that Sunday evening.

Soon Jerusalem was buzzing with the news! Jesus' body was gone! He had risen from the dead! And while some like Jesus' enemies did not believe, many others put their trust in Jesus and were saved.

For forty days, Jesus kept on meeting with His followers. Once Jesus even appeared to a whole crowd of His followers at once—more than five hundred people!

Can you count up to five hundred? It is a really big number! More than five hundred people saw Jesus at the same time! Wow!

And what did Jesus do when He met with His followers? He ate with them and encouraged them to believe in Him. And best of all, Jesus helped them understand from the Bible God's plan to save His people and how He had completed it.

"Now we understand why You had to die on the cross, Jesus," the disciples told Jesus. "Now we see how God sent You to save us from our sins."

Story with lines separating paragraphs (text in bold, optional interaction cues in italics)

But Jesus didn't just tell His followers about God's plans completed. He also told them about God's wonderful plans yet to come. Plans that they were a part of. There was so much for them to learn! For you see, Jesus was about to leave them. He had risen from the dead not just to live on earth again. No, He was about to go HOME! Can you remember where Jesus' home was?

Can you remember?

That's right! Jesus would be going back home to heaven to enjoy once more the FULL Perfect Wonderfulness again--complete, wonderful closeness with God, His Father and God, the Holy Spirit.

So for ten, twenty, thirty, forty days, Jesus walked and talked with His followers. He taught them all the things they needed to know, until at last on Day Forty, it was time for Him to go home to heaven.

Jesus led His disciples to the Mount of Olives to say goodbye. "I'm going to heaven to rule now, but I'm not leaving you alone," He told them. "I'm sending you Someone special to live in your hearts." Do you know who Jesus would send?

Do you know?

It was God's Holy Spirit!

"Yes, The Holy Spirit will live inside your hearts," Jesus promised them. "He will comfort you. He will teach you more about God and His wonderful plans. He will give you power to do everything I want you to do," Jesus said. "Power to tell the whole world how they can become God's people by turning away from their sins and trusting in Me as their Savior," He promised. "Power to live for God."

Then up, up, up went Jesus into the sky, through the clouds until they couldn't see Him. Jesus' friends stood there staring up into the sky, still trying to spot Him.

"Would Jesus come back? When? How?" Jesus' friends wondered as they looked up at the sky.

What do you think?

God sent two angels in sparkling, white robes to them to give them the answer, "Why do you stand here looking into heaven?" the angels asked Jesus' friends. "This Jesus who was taken up from you into heaven, will come back one day, in the same way you saw him go up to heaven," they promised.

How sad Jesus' friends must have been to see Jesus leave! They didn't want to wait to be with Him. They wanted to be with Him right then! There is nothing so wonderful as being close to Jesus!

BUT, they were very, VERY happy to know that the Holy Spirit would come and live in their hearts. And one day, they would get to live face to face with Jesus forever. They just wished that day was right then!

How loudly the thousands and thousands of angels must have sang as Jesus entered heaven! He had beaten sin and death for God's people! Now He was back home! Yay! And once more, Jesus enjoyed full, Perfect Wonderfulness with God His Father and God the Holy Spirit--that wonderful, special closeness He had known before He came to earth. Now it was His to fully enjoy again forever.

And where is Jesus now? He is still in heaven, ruling as the great King of Kings over everything in heaven and earth. He is praying and caring for God's people. He is working out all of God's great plans for this world until the day when He will come back through the clouds and down to earth again. What a great day that will be for God's people! Then Jesus will get rid of sin and sadness, sickness and death forever. And at last, all of God's people will live together with Him in the new heaven and earth. They will see Him in all His glory and enjoying as much of the Perfect Wonderfulness of God as they possibly can! I can hardly wait!

Meaning

The Bible tells us that after Jesus rose from the dead, He taught His disciples many things from the Bible. But at last, when Jesus finished teaching them, He went up to heaven and began His rule as king, just as God promised He would in the Bible.

That's what being at the right hand of God means. That's a Bible way of saying that Jesus is ruling as the promised, great King who would beat sin and death and save God's people--all who turn away from their sins and trust in Him as their Savior. (That can even be you and me!).

And that what Jesus is still doing even now. He is ruling over everything—not just all people, but all of the angels and other heavenly powers. He is King of Kings and Lord of Lords!

- T Thank You, Jesus, for dying on the cross to save all who trust in You as their Savior. Thank You for rising from the dead in victory! You show us that You really have beaten sin and death for all who turn away from their sins and trust in You as their Savior.
- S Jesus, work in our hearts. Help us to turn away from our sins. Help us to trust in You as our Savior. Help us to love You more and live for You more. Jesus, come back soon!
