

The Case of the Do's and Don'ts*Matthew 5,6,22Story-telling Tips

Ahead of time:

1. Read the Bible verses and story. Pray!
2. Choose story action cues and/or prepare storyboard figures, if using. (Included in Visual Aids book)
3. Practice telling story with the storyboard pictures, timing your presentation. Shorten, if necessary.

During your presentation:

1. Maintain as much eye contact as possible as you tell the story.
2. Put up storyboard figures/add story action cues as you tell the story. Allow the children to help you put them on the board, if desired.
3. Include the children in your story with a few questions about what they think will happen or words/concepts that might be new to them.
4. Watch the kids for signs that their attention span has been reached. Shorten, if necessary.

INTRODUCTION/ LISTENING ASSIGNMENTS

"Our story is called: The Case of the Do's and Don'ts. Here is your listening assignment." Read from Detective Dan's Listening Assignment signs, but questions are summarized below:

Detective Dan's Lesson #1 Listening Assignment:

I need to know:

1. Who made up extra little rules of do's and don'ts?
2. What did Jesus think of those extra do's and don'ts? What did Jesus say God's real laws help people do?

Detective Dan's Lesson #2 Listening Assignment:Our Bible Verse is Matthew 22:37-40:

"You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the great and first commandment. And a second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. On these two commandments depend all the Law and the Prophets."

I need to know:

1. Which laws did Jesus tell people to keep?
2. Who was the only person to keep God's laws perfectly? How did He share His perfect life with us?

Detective Dan's Lesson #3 Listening Assignment:I found six clues, but two of them are NOT in the story.

They are: a pillow, a cup, two fish, a painter, a heart, and God's Ten, Big Laws.

Hold each of them up for the children to see as you identify them.

I need to know:

1. Which four belong in the story and which two don't?
2. Who can help us keep God's laws and love others?

Read the assignment questions, THEN SAY,

"Ok, Deep Down Detectives! Put on your best listening ears and see if you can hear the answers to Detective Dan's questions. When I finish telling the story, we will see if we can answer all the questions."

Read the Bible Truth story, answer questions, present the gospel and lead in prayer.

Answers to questions; the gospel; and, ACTS prayer are included with the story text.

Story with lines separating paragraphs (text in bold, optional interaction cues in italics) Numbers correspond to storyboard pictures and placement upon the storyboard. Always feel free to use less pictures, if it's best for your kids. Simply black out the numbers next to pictures you do not plan to use. All pictures are found in the Visual Aids book. Put BG (background) pictures on storyboard ahead of time. SB pictures (listed below in story text) are added to board as you tell the story. These numbers are also found on the back of each picture.

Tip: Stack pictures in numerical order before telling story for easy use. Use sticky-back velcro to attach pictures to storyboard felt. Use sticky-tac putty to stick a picture on top of another picture.

(SB1) Rules! Rules! Rules! So many rules for God's people to keep! "Do this! Don't do that!" the teachers in Jesus' day taught the people. (SB2) There were of course the Ten, Big Laws—the Ten Commandments—that God had given them through Moses. But there were so many more rules than that. Can you guess how many laws those Pharisees counted up in God's Word for God's people to keep? Twenty? Fifty? Surely not a hundred!

What do you think?

It was more than any of those guesses! It was 613! There were 248 DO laws and 365 DON'T laws.

But soon those 613 laws turned into many, many more as the teachers came up with (SB3) extra ways they wanted God's people to live them out. They came up with "DO's" like: "Do say a special prayer as you wash your hands when you wake up in the morning... or you won't please God." And DON'T's" like: "Don't use the same spoon to stir milk and cook meat or you won't please God." What a lot of rules! (SB4) Oh, how they weighed down on the people! Who could keep all these rules!

But then (SB5) Jesus came. He wasn't like any other teacher the people had ever known. (SB6) He healed sick people without using any medicine! He healed them with just God's power! (SB7) He even brought dead people back to life again!

Jesus did other amazing things, too, like when (SB8) He made the strong winds and the big waves of a huge storm at sea suddenly STOP and be calm at His command. And, when (SB9) He fed a huge, hungry crowd of people with just two fishes and five loaves of bread. Jesus even forgave people's sins. Wow!

The news about Jesus spread quickly. Soon, (SB10) many people were coming to Jesus. They came to have Him heal their sick family and friends. They came to see Him do amazing things. And they came to hear what He had to say about God and His laws. (SB11) Would Jesus be just like all the other teachers? Would He tell them to keep all those Do's and Don'ts? Would He give them lots of extra rules like the Pharisees did?

What do you think?

One day they found out the answer to that question.

On that day, (SB12, SB13) Jesus and a huge crowd of people climbed up, up, up a grassy mountain above the Sea of Galilee. When they reached the top, Jesus sat down and began to teach them about God's laws.

"(SB14) God's laws are very important. They will last until the end of time. I have not come to get rid of even one of God's good laws," Jesus told the people. "Your teachers, the Pharisees, try to please God by adding lots of extra little rules to God's good laws. (SB15) They think all this rule-keeping will make them right with God...but it's not enough. You need something more than all their extra, little rules to please God. You will need a better righteousness than theirs if you want to be God's people," Jesus told them.

Oh, no! This didn't sound good at all! The Pharisees worked so hard to keep all 613 laws in the Bible! And they made up all those hundreds of extra, little rules, trying to please God. How could ANYONE be better than the Pharisees? Was Jesus going to give them even MORE rules to live by? It sure sounded that way.

What do you think?

Story with lines separating paragraphs (text in bold, optional interaction cues in italics)

No, Jesus was not. “(SB16) Your teachers are wrong about their extra, little rules. They just weigh people down. They don’t help anyone live as God wants them to live,” Jesus said. “I have come to fulfill God’s law. I will teach you how to really live out God’s laws to please Him,” He told the crowds.

“The Do’s and Don’ts in God’s Word are about how we show love to God and others. These laws start in the heart with love and they tell us out to live out this love with your whole life, as God wants you to,” Jesus explained.

(SB17) “Some people LOOK like they obey God’s laws. but really they are still breaking them,” Jesus told the people. “They do the right thing on the outside, but in their hearts they are angry or jealous or hateful. ~~God doesn’t just look on the inside. He sees inside every heart. He knows the sin that is hiding there. He~~ knows when you are angry or jealous or hateful. What goes on inside your heart breaks God’s laws, too,” Jesus explained.

The people listened to Jesus and were amazed! Jesus wasn’t at all like the other teachers they had heard before. He didn’t just give them lots of extra, little rules. He helped them see that God’s laws show them how to truly love God and others. (SB18) As Jesus later said: “Love the LORD with all your heart, your mind and your strength. Love others—even your enemies—as much as you love yourself. Do to them only what you want them to do to you. If you do love the LORD and love others like this, you will be obeying all of God’s laws, because that’s what God’s laws are really all about.”

How about that! All of those 10 Commandments.... and even all of those 613 laws added up to really only two: love the LORD and love others. Amazing!

(SB19) As the crowds of people climbed back down the mountainside at the end of the day, I wonder what they were thinking? Jesus had given them less rules to follow, but they were much harder than all those 613 Do’s and Don’ts in God’s Word, and all those extra, little rules of the Pharisees. Anyone could remember to wash their hands when they woke up in the morning or use a different spoon when they stirred the milk and cooked the meat. (SB20) But loving God and others from the heart... that was so hard! How could they ever keep their hearts from being angry or jealous or hateful towards others? How could they really love God most of all? Could they ever really keep God’s laws? Could they ever please God and really God’s people if this was how they must live? There seemed to be no hope.

What do you think?

Well, there WAS no hope, if they had to keep God’s good laws of love on their own. But praise God, they did NOT! That’s why God send Jesus! Not just to TELL the people what it really means to live out God’s laws. But to do it, Himself. (SB21) Yes, Jesus lived out God’s laws perfectly every day He lived here on earth. He always loved God most of all. He always loved people. In everything He thought and said and did. He fulfilled God’s law completely. He pleased God with His whole life. And Jesus did this because He truly loved God, His Father. And, He did this because He had come to be our Savior. (SB22)

And what did the Pharisees think about what Jesus taught? They did NOT like it!

They did not like that He said He was God’s Son. They did not like what He had to say about them and all their extra, little rules. And so, the Pharisees and other enemies worked together to get rid of Jesus. (SB23) They nailed Him to a cross to suffer and die...and get rid of Him, once and for all.

But God was up to good, even in the bad plans of Jesus’ enemies. For on that cross, Jesus offered up His perfect life as the full payment for the sins of all who would ever turn away from their sins and trust in Him as their Savior. He took their punishment and gave them His perfect life. Now they could please God! Now with their own life, but with His!

Story with lines separating paragraphs (text in bold, optional interaction cues in italics)

(SB24) Jesus died and was buried in a cave-grave that sad day, but did He stay there?

What do you think?

(SB25) No, He did not! On the third day, He rose from the dead. Jesus had really beaten sin and death for God's people!

(SB26) After Jesus rose from the dead, He appeared to His followers and taught them more about God's good plans. Best of all, He told them about God's special gift to help them live out God's law from their hearts. Do you know what that special gift was?

Can you guess?

It was the Holy Spirit!

(SB27) "I am going back home to heaven, but I will send you the Holy Spirit to live in your hearts," Jesus told His followers. "He will fill your hearts with love. He will help you love God most of all. He will help you love others, too. And He will stay with you your whole lives until the day you come home to live with Me forever," Jesus promised them.

And sure enough, not long after (SB28) Jesus went up to heaven, (SB29) He did send the Holy Spirit to live in the hearts of God's people! How they praised God! How happy they were!

God had been so good to them through Jesus! Jesus had lived a perfect life of love and given it to them so they could be God's people. He had sent the Holy Spirit to help them love better the rest of their lives.

(SB30) And how they looked forward to the day when they would go to live with Him forever! Then God would make all things new--even their hearts. (SB31) Then, they would love God and each other perfectly. And at last, God's laws would be perfectly fulfilled, even in them!

Cracking the Case: (story wrap-up for Listening Assignments)

It's time to see how we did with our Listening Assignment.

Detective Dan's Lesson 1 Listening Assignment:1. Who made up extra little rules of do's and don'ts?

The Pharisees.

2. What did Jesus think of those extra do's and don'ts? What did Jesus say God's real laws help people do? Jesus did not think those do's and don'ts pleased God. Jesus said God's real laws help people love God most of all and love others.

For You and Me:

None of us can ever keep enough laws--or even little rules--to please God. Only perfectly keeping God's laws can do that...and we are all law-breakers! Our only hope is by turning away from our sins and trusting in Jesus as our Savior. He is the only way we can please God. Ask Him to help you! He loves to answer this prayer!

Detective Dan's Lesson 2 Listening Assignment:Our Bible Verse is Matthew 22:37-40:

"You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the great and first commandment. And a second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. On these two commandments depend all the Law and the Prophets."

I need to find out:

1. Which laws did Jesus tell people to keep? God's laws.

2. Who was the only person to keep God's laws perfectly? How did He share His perfect life with us?

Jesus. He gave it up on the cross as the full payment for the sins of God's people when He suffered and died on the cross.

For You and Me

How amazing that Jesus kept God's laws perfectly! How even more amazing that He offers to share His perfect life with that we might be saved! This is His promise to all who turn away from their sins and trust in Him as their Savior. Ask Him to help you do this! He loves to answer this prayer!

Detective Dan's Lesson 3 Listening Assignment:

Our six clues were: a pillow, a cup, two sh, a painter, a heart, and God's Ten, Big Laws.

1. Which four belong in our story?

The cup, the sh, the heart and God's Ten, Big Laws.

2. Who can help us keep God's laws and love others?

God's Holy Spirit, living in our hearts.

For You and Me:

Can God help us keep His laws and love others, too? Yes, He can! He will send His Holy Spirit to live inside all who turn away from their sins and trust in Jesus as their Savior. What a wonderful helper He is to have! He can come to live inside you and help you, too!

The Gospel (story wrap-up if NOT using Listening Assignments)Our Bible Truth is:*What Are God's Laws Like?*God's Laws Are Perfect...*They Tell Us How to Love God and Others!

God's laws tell us how to love God and others. But the sad news is that we all choose to not love God and others. We choose to disobey God and to not love Him or others. We all deserve His punishment for our sins! God would have been perfectly fair to give us all the punishment we deserve for breaking His laws. He is holy and good. But God is so rich in mercy. He chose to give us something better than we deserve. He sent His Son Jesus to live a perfect life. Yes! Jesus kept every, single one of God's laws! And on the cross, He suffered and died, giving His perfect life as the full payment for the sins of all who turn away from their sins and trust in Him as their Savior. On the third day, Jesus rose from the dead. On the third day, Jesus rose from the dead. He had really beaten sin and death! Because of Jesus, all who trust in Him as their Savior get to enjoy wonderful, special closeness with God as His special people, even now. And one day, they will go to live with Him forever. We can be God's people when we turn from our sins and trust in Jesus. Ask Him to help you! He loves to do this!

Close in prayer.

Closing ACTS Prayer

- A We praise You, God, for being the Giver of Your perfectly good laws.
- C God, many times we do not obey Your good laws. Many times we do not love You or others as Your laws tell us to. We need a Savior!
- T Thank You, God, for giving us Your good laws that show us we how to love You and others. Thank You for sending Your Holy Spirit to live in our hearts when we trust in Jesus as our Savior. He helps us to obey Your good and loving laws.
- S God, work in our hearts. Help us to turn away from our sins and trust in Jesus as our Savior. Send Your Holy Spirit to live inside our hearts and help us to love You and others as You want us to.

In Jesus' name we pray, Amen.
