Session Prep (especially good for newbies!)

Pray!

Pray for the Holy Spirit to be at work in your and the children's hearts.

Review

If new to the curriculum, look at the Getting Started with Deep Down Detectives section of the Core Curriculum book. (p.5) It will be especially helpful to read through the Deep Down Detectives section of The Praise Factory Tour: Extended Version Book. This is a visual way to understand what goes on in the classroom. (A pdf of the book is found in the samples section on the website.)

Look through and Learn the Lesson

Read over lesson plan. Practice any songs or action rhymes you are using. Choose/make up motions to go with these. Choose less with younger children and more with older preschoolers. Practice the lesson with the visual aids and using the Big Question Box/Briefcase.

Read and Rehearse the Bible Story with Pictures

Read the Bible story from the Bible. Read the curriculum version. Practice telling it with the storyboard pictures. (If you have not previously laminated the story pictures, do that now.)

Let There Be Music

Download the music and listen to the songs. Choose which of the songs you will use with the children. If using live musicians, make sure they have the sheet music (Appendix A, Core Curriculum book).

Put the Props in Place

1. Prepare your Visual Aids. Put the Big Question, Unit Bible Truths, Bible Truth, Bible Verse, and Listening Assignment signs, as well as the Bible Story script in one side of the Bible folder.
2. Get out your storyboard. Put all background pictures in place (they have a BG by the number). Put the rest of the storyboard pictures (these have a SB by the number) in order of use in the other side of the Bible folder.
3. Put the DDD Bible Folder as well as the Big Question sign in the Big Question Box/Briefcase and shut it. If your box/briefcase has locks and you want to use the unlocking the box as part of your session, lock it now....but make sure you have the key or know the code first.
4. Prepare the music CD or sheet music or mp3 device for use in your session.

Set Out Free Play Activities

Choose and set up free time activities you will use with the children. Choose a variety of different activities that will be enjoyed by different types of children. Rotate the activities you provide to keep them interesting and fresh to your children. (Suggestions in Appendix D, Core Curriculum books.)

Prepare Any Activities

Choose which (if any) of the Bible Truth games and crafts activities you want to use in the session. Bear in mind your time frame as well as the developmental abilities and attention span of your children as you decide which/how many to prepare. Look over the Discussion Sheet and choose a few questions you might use to spark discussion with the children as they do their activities (especially good for ages 3's+). Pray for God to give you opportunities to talk about these things with the children.

Let Them Take It with Them

Make copies of the craft/take home sheets, if you are not already using them as one of your activities. You may also want to make copies of the story (see take-home version of each story included in Appendix C with the other take home resources) to have for parents to use with their children at home. There's a link on each craft/take home sheet to the story, if you don't make hard copies.

Store It

After your session is over, collect the resources and store them for future use. This curriculum can be used over and over for years to come.

Deep Down Detectives NIV Songs 4 Track Numbers

This is a listing of all songs mentioned in the unit curriculum. You may or may not choose to use all of the songs. They are listed in easy-reference order--NOT in the order used in the curriculum.

You may choose to simply burn a CD/load them onto an mp3 device in this order. Or, you may want to do what we do: choose the songs we want to use and create a play list of them in that order. Then, we burn a CD/upload the play list onto an mp3 device. A teacher only has to click forward to the next song, instead of hunting for the right track. The track number have been included as part of the title of each song, so teachers will still have a reference to the track number listed in the curriculum (same as those listed below), even if you change the order on your customized play list.

Big Question 4, Bible Truth 2 Overview: Key ConceptsP.1*Unit 4: The God Like None Other

Unit Big Question (and Answer): Can Anybody Tell Me What the LORD Is Like? He's Not Like Anyone Else!

Unit Bible Verse: "O LORD... there is no God like you in heaven above or on earth below." 1 Kings 8:23

Bible Truth 2 Concept: He's Not Like Anyone Else...He is the One, True God

People look for a god to worship: someone or something that they honor as best; who is most important to them; who they will love most of all, and serve. And, someone or thing they can depend on to take care of them.

Sometimes, people make their own gods. They cut them out of wood or stone and worship them. Sometimes, people make things their god. They make having many nice things most important. They trust in their money to take care of them. They never seem to have enough of it. Sometimes people worship other people or even themselves! People are most important to them. They change what they say and do to please them, even if it's wrong. What others think of them matters to them too much.

Money, people, and even wood and stone are all good things, but they were not meant to be worshipped. There is really only one SOMEONE we are made to worship: it is the LORD, the one, true God. The LORD made heaven and earth and everything in it... even us! He is all-loving and all-good. He knows everything there is to know and He can do whatever He wants to do. He's the one who can we can depend on to take care of us. He is the only one who is really worthy of our worship. There is no one like Him.

Seek after the LORD! Live for Him! He promises that all who seek Him will find Him. How wonderful it is to know and live for the LORD, the one, true God!

Bible Truth 2 Bible Verse: Psalm 86:8,10

"Among the gods there is none like you, O LORD; no deeds can compare with yours. For you are great and do marvelous deeds; you alone are God."

Learn a Little: "O LORD ... you alone are God."

Meaning:

This verse tells us that there is no one like the LORD. If we compare anyone else's deeds to the LORD's, it is easy to see just how great He is. He alone is God and worthy of our worship.

Bible Truth 2 ACTS Prayer

- A We praise You, LORD, that You are the great and awesome God. There is no god like You!
- C LORD, we should love and worship You alone, but many times we choose to worship other gods. We don't live for You. We don't honor You as best and most important. We don't depend on You to take care of us. Please forgive us! We need a Savior!
- T Thank You, LORD, making us to know and worship You. Thank You for making the way for us to be forgiven of our sins through Jesus. Thank You that He is why we can know and worship You now.
- S Work in our hearts! Help us to turn away from other things we are tempted to worship. Help us to trust in Jesus as our Savior. Help us to worship only You! In Jesus' name we pray, Amen.

“Detectives INVESTIGATE things. That means they ask questions and look for answers. Deep Down Detectives investigate big questions about God. The Big Question we are investigating today is right inside our Big Question Box/Briefcase.

All closed up and locked,
Filled with the truths of God’s Word.

(SB1) The LORD and the (SB2) people of Israel made big promises to each other.

The LORD (SB3) promised that He would always love them and take care of them. He would keep them safe and give them everything they needed to be happy. Best of all, He would give them Himself to know and enjoy forever.

The people of Israel promised the LORD something in return, too. Can you guess what that might be?

Can you guess?

They promised to (SB4) love the LORD.

Now that might sound very simple at first. But the love the LORD wanted His people to have for Him was not a little, tiny love—like a love that wakes up in the morning and says “Good morning, LORD! I love you,” but then forgets Him the rest of the day.

No, the kind of love the LORD wanted was a love that loved Him with their whole lives, through the whole day, in everything they did and said and even thought. It meant obeying (SB5) all of His good laws and worshipping Him as the One, True God. So you see, this was a very BIG love that the LORD asked the people to promise Him... and they were happy to do it.

But it is one thing to make a promise and another thing to keep it, especially big promises like the LORD and the people of Israel made to each other. And while the LORD kept His promises to the people of Israel, the people did NOT.

They forgot Him as they lived each day. They (SB6) broke His good laws. They stopped worshipping Him as the One, True God and (SB7) turned to worship other, fake gods instead....especially the fake god that (SB8) their neighbors worshipped: a (SB9) fake god named Baal. And (SB10) their king--King Ahab--led the way.

Baal was supposed to be the god who gave the three, big things that the people especially cared about back in those days. Can you guess what the three things might be?

Can you guess?

There were (SB11) rain and big families and good food!

Now you might think of three OTHER things you especially care about, but back in those days there were no grocery stores or hospitals. You needed rain to grow your food and keep you and your animals alive. And you hoped that no bad sickness come to your family. Rain, big families and good food meant LIFE to these people! Who could want to worship Baal if he could give them that!

Story with lines separating paragraphs (text in bold, optional interaction cues in italics)

But what about the people of Israel? Didn't they need rain, and big families and good food to live, too? Yes, they did! But they didn't need to turn to Baal for these. Who SHOULD they have turned to instead?

Can you tell me?

They SHOULD have turned to the LORD. He had already made big promises to always love them and take care of them. Hadn't He always given them the rain, big families and good food they needed? Wouldn't He keep on giving it to them? Yes, He would have! The LORD never breaks His promises!

But, the people of Israel chose to forget all of this. They chose to worship the fake god, Baal, instead. Their king,

Uh, oh! This was sad news! This was BAD news! The people of Israel had turned away from the LORD. They had broken their promises to Him. What would the LORD do? Would He turn away from them and stop caring for them, as they deserved?

What do you think the LORD did?

The LORD COULD have done that, but He did not. He chose to go on loving them. He would bring them back to Him. He would show them in a mighty way that Baal was just a fake and that He, the LORD, was the one, true God. And He would do it by stopping the very thing that Baal was supposed to be in charge of: the rain.

The LORD sent (SB12) His special messenger, Elijah, to tell King Ahab and the people what He was going to do.

"I have a message from the LORD," Elijah told them: "You have broken your promise to love Me. You have chosen to worship Baal as giver of rain and big families and lots of good food, but he isn't. He is just a fake god. He is not the One True God. I am...as I am going to show you!"

"I am going to take away all the rain. I am going to take away all the good food from you...the food you need so you can have big families. And no matter how much anyone prays to Baal, there will be no more rain or good food until I say so. Then you will see that I, not Baal, am the One True God," the LORD warned the people through Elijah.

Those were big words. Could the LORD really do this? Could He really stop Baal's power? Everyone waited and watched.

What do you think happened?

Sure enough, day after day after day went by and there was no rain.

The (SB13) water in the streams dried up. The good food that should have grown in the fields, died. The big families and their animals grew hungry and thirsty. They took their worship gifts to Baal and prayed, "Oh, Baal, send us the rain we need to grow good food and feed our big families."

But for one, two, THREE whole years, no matter how much anyone prayed to Baal, there was no rain or good food. Oh, how sad the neighbors were! Oh, how sad the people of Israel were!

Story with lines separating paragraphs (text in bold, optional interaction cues in italics)

At last, the LORD knew the people had learned enough from their suffering. They were ready for the great showdown. The big fight with fire that would make it clear to them and their neighbors who the one, true God really was.

(SB14) Elijah went back to King Ahab with a new message: “The LORD says: ‘For three years I’ve taken away your rain and good food. It has been hard to feed your big families. I did this because you and the people chose to stop worshipping Me and obeying My good laws. I wanted you to see that I am the one, true God, not Baal,’” the LORD said.

“I’m not done yet. There’s one more thing I want to do. Gather all the people and the messengers of Baal on top of Mount Carmel. There you will see who the One True God is, once and for all,” the LORD promised.

King Ahab obeyed. Up, up, up to the top of dry Mount Carmel went (SB15) Elijah with the king with the people of Israel and (SB16) the messengers of Baal.

Elijah gathered them all together and said, “The time has come to see who is the One, True God. If it is Baal, follow him. If it is the LORD, follow Him.”

“I am the only messenger of the LORD here, but Baal has (SB17) many messengers,” Elijah told them. “We will each give a worship gift of a bull to our god. Baal’s messengers will give Baal their worship gift; and I will give my worship gift to the LORD,” Elijah explained.

“But instead of lighting the fire under the worship gifts, like we usually do, we will make this a fight with fire between the LORD and Baal. The One, True God will send fire down to burn up the worship offering,” Elijah told them.

This shouldn’t be hard for Baal. He’s the rain god. He can throw down one of his lightning bolts and set the worship gift on fire. I will even let the messengers of Baal go first,” Elijah said.

Everyone agreed. The messengers of Baal (SB18) took a bull, set it on some stones and wood and made it into a worship offering. Then they (SB19) shouted their prayers to Baal. “O great Baal, show that you are the one, true God! Accept our worship gift! Send fire to burn it up!” they prayed.

What do you think happened?

Nothing happened at all. But Baal’s messengers didn’t give up. Next, they tried (SB20) shouting louder and dancing a special worship dance to Baal. But still, nothing happened. On and on, all day, Baal’s messengers tried many things; but still no fire came down.

At last they gave up. it was Elijah’s turn. With (SB21) twelve, big stones, Elijah rebuilt the altar to the LORD. He put lots of wood. on it, and the bull on top of the wood. Then he had (SB22, SB23) men pour lots and lots of water on the everything to make it even harder to burn up.

Story with lines separating paragraphs (text in bold, optional interaction cues in italics)

Then (SB24) Elijah prayed to the LORD: “O LORD, let it be known today that You are the God of Israel and I am Your servant. Answer me that the people may know that You, O LORD, are the One, True God and that You have turned their hearts back to loving and obeying You.”

What do you think happened? Would the LORD send down fire?

What do you think?

Yes, He would! (SB25) All of a sudden, a huge, hot, blaze of fire down from heaven. WHOOSH! It burned up the bull, the wood, the water, the stones and even the soil. Can you imagine fire so hot that it could burn up stones!!!

When all the people saw this, they (SB26) fell down on their faces and said, “The LORD, He is God; the LORD, He is the One True God!”

Then they turned on the messengers of Baal and got rid of them all. At last, the people of Israel had turned back to obeying and worship the LORD! And at last, it was time for rain.

(SB27) Elijah bowed down low to the ground, with his face between his knees, and prayed to the LORD. The skies soon grew (SB28A,B) black with clouds and a great rain began to fall. All the people rejoiced in the rain and the good food that would grow again now. And what God did they thank?

Can you tell me?

They thanked the LORD! For now it was very, very clear: Baal was only a fake god; and the LORD was the One, True God. There was no other God and there never would be.

Cracking the Case: (story wrap-up for Listening Assignments)

It's time to see how we did with our Listening Assignment.

Detective Dan's Lesson #1 Listening Assignment:

I need to know:

1. What was the fight about? Who was the one, true God.

2. Who won the fight? How did He use fire to show He had won? The LORD won. He sent down fire from heaven and burned up the worship gifts.

For You and Me:

The LORD was the one, true God long ago when this story took place. He is STILL the one, true God today! He wants us to know Him and obey Him, just like He wanted the people of Israel to, long ago. How can we do this? By turning away from our sins and trusting in Jesus as our Savior. Ask God to help you! He loves to answer these prayers!

Detective Dan's Lesson #2 Listening Assignment:

We learned: Psalm 86:8,10:

"Among the gods there is none like you, O LORD; no deeds can compare with yours. For you are great and do marvelous deeds; you alone are God."

I need to know:

1. What marvelous thing did the LORD do with fire? He sent down fire from heaven and burned up the worship gifts.

2. Who had to agree that there is no god like the LORD? Everyone!

For You and Me:

Everyone was amazed when the LORD sent fire down to burn up the worship gifts and even the rocks around the altar! The people had to agree that there was no god like the LORD. He was the one, true God. He is still the one, true God today. He is still doing amazing deeds. The most amazing deed of all is offering to be our Savior. Yes! Even though we have all disobeyed Him and deserve His punishment, He offers us His forgiveness and to make us His people. How? When we turn from our sins and trust in Jesus as our Savior. Ask Him to help you! He loves to do this!

Detective Dan's Lesson #3 Listening Assignment:

I found six clues, but two of them are NOT in the story. They are: a bull; a god named Baal; a bush; dancing men; a pan; and, fire.

Hold each of them up for the children to see as you identify them.

I need to know:

1. Which four belong in the story and which two don't? The bull, the god named Baal, the dancing men and the fire belong. The bush and the pan do not.

2. Who praised the LORD for being the one, true God? Elijah and all the people of Israel.

For You and Me:

The people of Israel turned away from worshipping Baal and returned to praise the LORD after they saw Him sent fire down from heaven. He was the one, true God. There was no other god they should ever worship besides Him! There is no god we should worship other than the LORD, too. We can start to worship Him by turning away from our sins and trusting in Jesus as our Savior. Ask God to help you! He loves to answer these prayers!

The Gospel (story wrap-up if NOT using Listening Assignments)Our Bible Truth is:

Can Anybody Tell Me What the LORD Is Like?

He's Not Like Anyone Else...

He Is the One, True God!

The people of Israel are not the only people who disobey the LORD and choose to worship other things. We have all chosen to disobey Him. We have all chosen to worship other things besides Him. How we deserve His punishment!

But how kind is the LORD! He offers us forgiveness through His Son, Jesus! Jesus suffered and died on the cross as the perfect payment for our sins. He rose from the dead on the third day, showing He had really beaten sin and death for us. How can Jesus be OUR Savior? By turning away from our sins and trusting in Jesus as our Savior. If we do, we become God's special people. We will know special closeness with Him in our hearts now. And one day, we will go to live with Him forever. God loves to help us trust in Jesus! Ask Him!

Close in prayer.

Questions to aid discussion of the key concepts and for use in games

Be familiar with these questions and answers. Look for opportunities to ask questions and discuss their answers, such as while the children work on their coloring pages, as part of their response games, or during play time. Remember: your goal isn't to ask all these questions or only talk to the children about these things. It is to be deliberate in having good conversations with them, however much or little you have.

And, someone or thing they can depend on to take care of them. Sometimes, people make their own gods. They cut them out of wood or stone and worship them. Sometimes, people make things their god. They make having many nice things most important. They trust in their money to take care of them. They never seem to have enough of it.
